

Dear BACKPACK Friends and Supporters,

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

We hope you're enjoying your Thanksgiving so far. Here on the Backpack Full of Cash Team, we're thankful for our friends, our families, our work, and especially our ability to follow our passion for public education these past four years to create this film.

We're even more thankful for all of the support we've received in so many different forms. From people's time and openness to being interviewed for the film, to writing articles, to spreading the word and sharing our posts on social media, the dedication of you, our followers, is unparalleled and has been crucial in getting us to this point.

Over the course of 30 days in October and November, more than 400 people graciously donated over $34,000—which is nearly $3,000 more than our goal. If we haven't said it enough already... again, we THANK YOU ALL from the bottom of our hearts!

Now for some quality time with our families this Thanksgiving Day. Enjoy! We'll be in touch.

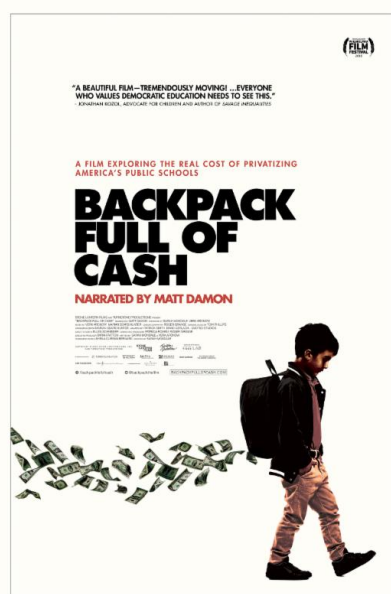

Gratefully yours,

Sarah Mondale, Vera Aronow, and THE BACKPACK TEAM

FOLLOW US!

If you haven't yet heard of BACKPACK FULL OF CASH, it's a documentary about the real cost of privatizing America's public schools (see here for more details).

*"One of the ways a society shows its love of children is by the institutions it builds around them."
– Helen Gym, co-founder of Parents United for Public Education –*