"GIVING TUESDAY" & HOLIDAY SEASON 2017

Happy Post-Thanksgiving!

After spending some much-appreciated time with family and friends, we're now taking stock. More than 800 groups have gotten in touch with us so far about seeing our film or hosting a screening. "Backpack Full of Cash" is ALREADY acting as a catalyst for important discussions about the real cost of privatizing America's public schools. It's being shown in state houses and school districts, at national roundtables, colleges, movie theaters, conferences, churches, schools; as one-off events and multi-screening, multi-city tours. But we can't sustain this amazing forward momentum and keep the discussion going without your help. On "Giving Tuesday" and as we get into the holiday season, please consider making a tax-deductible donation.

We urgently need funds for:

- Shorter versions of the film for community and classroom use
- Printed Discussion Guides and Screening Handbooks
- Spanish versions of the film and community resources
- DVDs with closed captions
- Staff and monthly expenses to keep the "Backpack" community screening campaign going

We can't do this without you! Make a tax-deductible contribution to Stone Lantern Films today.

Thank you for all your support.
