

BACKPACK FULL OF CASH

NARRATED BY MATT DAMON

Post-screening discussion at Seattle International Film Festival

With 180 screenings since January, thousands of new viewers have seen our documentary film Backpack Full of Cash, sparking conversations between teachers, parents, students and elected officials about the crucial issues surrounding public education today. “Americans Doing Democracy” is what one viewer called it. You can’t get that when you’re home alone watching TV!

As a thank you to our incredible community, we are offering a new 2018 Screening-A-Day Discount!

We had, on average, more than one screening a day in September. Our goal is to keep the momentum going! If you book a screening by December 31, 2018, you will be eligible for our new discount. We want to make it easier (and more affordable) to bring Backpack to your community, at a time when public education has never needed more support.

"We appreciate the truth and importance of your documentary...Each time we attend a screening, we continue to be impressed by the commitments from viewers, educators and parents to get involved."

- Maxine Nadel Offenbach, educator
Tampa, FL

UNA MOCHILA LLENA DE DINERO

We are so grateful to both The Schott Foundation for Public Education and Matt Damon for helping us bring Spanish subtitles to Backpack Full of Cash, making it accessible to even more communities across the country.

Watch the trailer of Backpack with Spanish subtitles.

Listen to what this viewer had to say about the film at the NYC premiere of the Spanish-subtitled version of Backpack at Barnard College.

If you're interested, **go to our website** and add a note in "Tell Us More", to request Spanish subtitles! (English subtitles and closed captions are also available.)
