A FILM EXPLORING THE REAL COST OF PRIVATIZING
AMERICA'S PUBLIC SCHOOLS

BACKPACK FULL OF CASH

NARRATED BY MATT DAMON

---

Order Backpack Full of Cash online!

We're excited to announce that our documentary Backpack Full of Cash about the damaging movement to privatize America's public schools, can now be ordered online!

There's an Educational License for libraries, schools and colleges and a Community-Screening License for people who want to show it to their parent, teacher or civic organization.

As the 2020 political candidates begin debating issues like charter schools, student segregation and teachers' pay, this is a great time to help educate voters using our acclaimed film. We've already helped organize hundreds of screenings and can personally attest to the power of Backpack to spur people into action.

We have free, downloadable resources, including a tried-and-tested discussion guide, screening handbook and promotional materials for your use. Materials are also available in Spanish.

As citizens are becoming more informed, the tide may be turning against school privatization. More people need to know how our public education system is being dismantled and what they can do to help save it.

Remember, together, we can make a difference!
