Your Voice Matters! Backpack Full of Cash Helps Raise Awareness of Threats to Public Education

Capistrano, CA—Signing up at a screening 10/15/19

So much to be thankful for!

Local elections in Denver, Philadelphia and in Kentucky (just announced!), show big WINS for public education advocates. In Arizona, activists report that the majority of school district bonds passed and “voters want to increase funding for public schools.” But, locally controlled public education remains under attack, and we need YOUR HELP to continue to raise awareness!

Now, until December 31st, purchase ONE community license screening and receive a second one for FREE.

- Go to our new online Store
- Select Community Screening License
- Enter the coupon code 241DISCOUNT at checkout

You will receive special permission to show the film at TWO public or community events
any time in the future.

(You must purchase the license by 12/31/2019.)

Host a screening of Backpack Full of Cash, and join the movement to push back against the threats to public education. Show your communities how they too, can help save public schools!

Right: Minneapolis, MN—Filmmaker Sarah Mondale with future teachers 10/30/19*

So far, Backpack has screened over 400 times in 39 states and 9 countries. Become part of the movement! Show the film in your community or encourage your school, college or library to buy an Educational License.

We make it easy! We offer free, downloadable resources, including a tried-and-tested Discussion Guide, Screening Handbook and promotional materials for your use. Materials are also available in Spanish.

Informing citizens is the first step to turning the tide for public education. Together, we can make a difference!

Best Wishes from Sarah M, Vera and Sarah P, Producers of 'Backpack Full of Cash'
