This multiple-choice quiz was created by a school finance expert and handed out at a Backpack screening in Texas. Many of the questions stumped the audience -- and the filmmakers! The quiz is a fantastic discussion starter and can easily be shortened and adapted for other states. We'd love to see new versions! If you create one for your state, please send it to us at info@backpackfullofcash.com or tag us on social media and we will share!

Charter Schools are coming to the suburbs.

Backpack director Sarah Mondale writes, “My trip to Denton, TX in January was a real eye-opener. I knew about the impact of charter schools on public schools in big cities like Philadelphia and New Orleans. But in this fast-growing area north of Dallas, I saw charters making inroads in the suburbs. And, as in big cities, public schools are paying a price.”
